

Short Film Festival "Olive Land"

Written by News Editor

Monday, 13 April 2009 06:10 - Last Updated Sunday, 29 August 2010 08:11

---

The Secretariat for the short film festival "Olive Land" (Sarzamine Zeitoun in farsi) will hold this festival to highlight the atrocities against the people of Palestine and to achieve unity among people of Palestine.

The festival will exhibit short films but photo and scripts will also be introduced.

The secretariat hopes to include subjects of interest related to Palestine among Muslims and has called on the artists to send works on: Quds, the 1st Qibla for Muslims, state of people of Palestine from humanitarian point of view, martyrs of Intifadha, holocaust, fake stories and its use for occupying forces, 60 years of homelessness for Palestinians, Islamic Revolution and the resistance of Palestinians, the role of Islamic Revolution's literature in Palestine, and emphasis on Palestine issue being an Islamic issue and the need to find Islamic solution for it.

Different forms of art works in the form of documentaries, animations, clips and other short films can be submitted in the festival.

The festival is organized by the committee for defending the rights of Palestinians with the help of Iran art centers.

First festival of "Olive Land" will be held in May 2009 in Isphahan Iran.

{comments}